

Romania Nuclear Power Sector: Opportunities for U.S. Companies

Business Briefing Wednesday, 8 September 2010

The U.S. Trade and Development Agency (USTDA) is sponsoring a Romania delegation's visit to the United States to encourage partnerships with U.S. businesses that can participate in and support Romania's nuclear power development plans. The delegation represents the leadership of the Romanian Ministry of Economy, Nuclearelectrica, EnergoNuclear and others.

USTDA is sponsoring a Business Briefing for U.S. companies to learn more about Romania's construction plans, investment opportunities, and regulatory framework for civil nuclear energy.

U.S. companies with expertise in the commercial nuclear power industry are invited to participate in a one-day business briefing to:

- Meet with senior decision makers from Romania who are directly involved in the development of this growing sector.
- Network with U.S. industry and U.S. government stakeholders who are interested in the sector.
- Learn more about Romania's nuclear energy program.
- Learn about USTDA's funding programs.
- Attend one-on-one meetings with the delegates.
